

Award in Introductory Tungsten Inert Gas Welding Skills

This qualification covers the Level 1 knowledge and practical skills required by someone preparing to work in the welding industry.

The qualification could help you develop a career in the advanced manufacturing and engineering sector. It could lead to several job roles including:

- Welder
- Fitter Welder
- Pipe Fitter
- Plater Fabricator

Qualification gained:

EAL Level 1 Award in Introductory Tungsten Inert Gas (TIG) Welding Skills (QCF)

Entry requirements:

There are no pre-entry requirements for learners choosing this qualification.

Duration:

Flexible, up to 10 weeks.

Cost:

Free*

To register your interest, email:
courses@nwtc.co.uk

or call 0151 523 0808

* To qualify for a free place, applicants must be a resident of the Liverpool City Region and aged 19 or over. This will need to be confirmed prior to starting the course.